

Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

Employees of agencies shall recuse themselves from any situation in which the employee has a conflict of interest or where an employee's impartiality might reasonably be questioned due to the employee's personal or financial relationship with a participant in the proceeding. Such recusal shall apply to, among other circumstances, situations where an employee's relative is a lobbyist, vendor, or potential vendor for the State; or where the employee's relative has a current or potential business relationship with an agency or any other issue pending before the employee's respective agency. Employees with multiple relatives creating potential conflicts must fill out separate Disclosure Forms for each relative.

Pursuant to the Code of Ethics, the term "relative" includes the following: spouse, parent, grandparent, child, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, first cousin, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, or half-sister.

I. Reason for Disclosure:
